Step-free ramp boarding.

Clayton Island Tours runs narrated cruises past the lighthouses and Boldt Castle, and boards manual wheelchairs by ramp.

A castle you can actually tour.

On Heart Island the grounds and main floors are step-free or ramped, and an elevator reaches most of the interior. Open May through October.

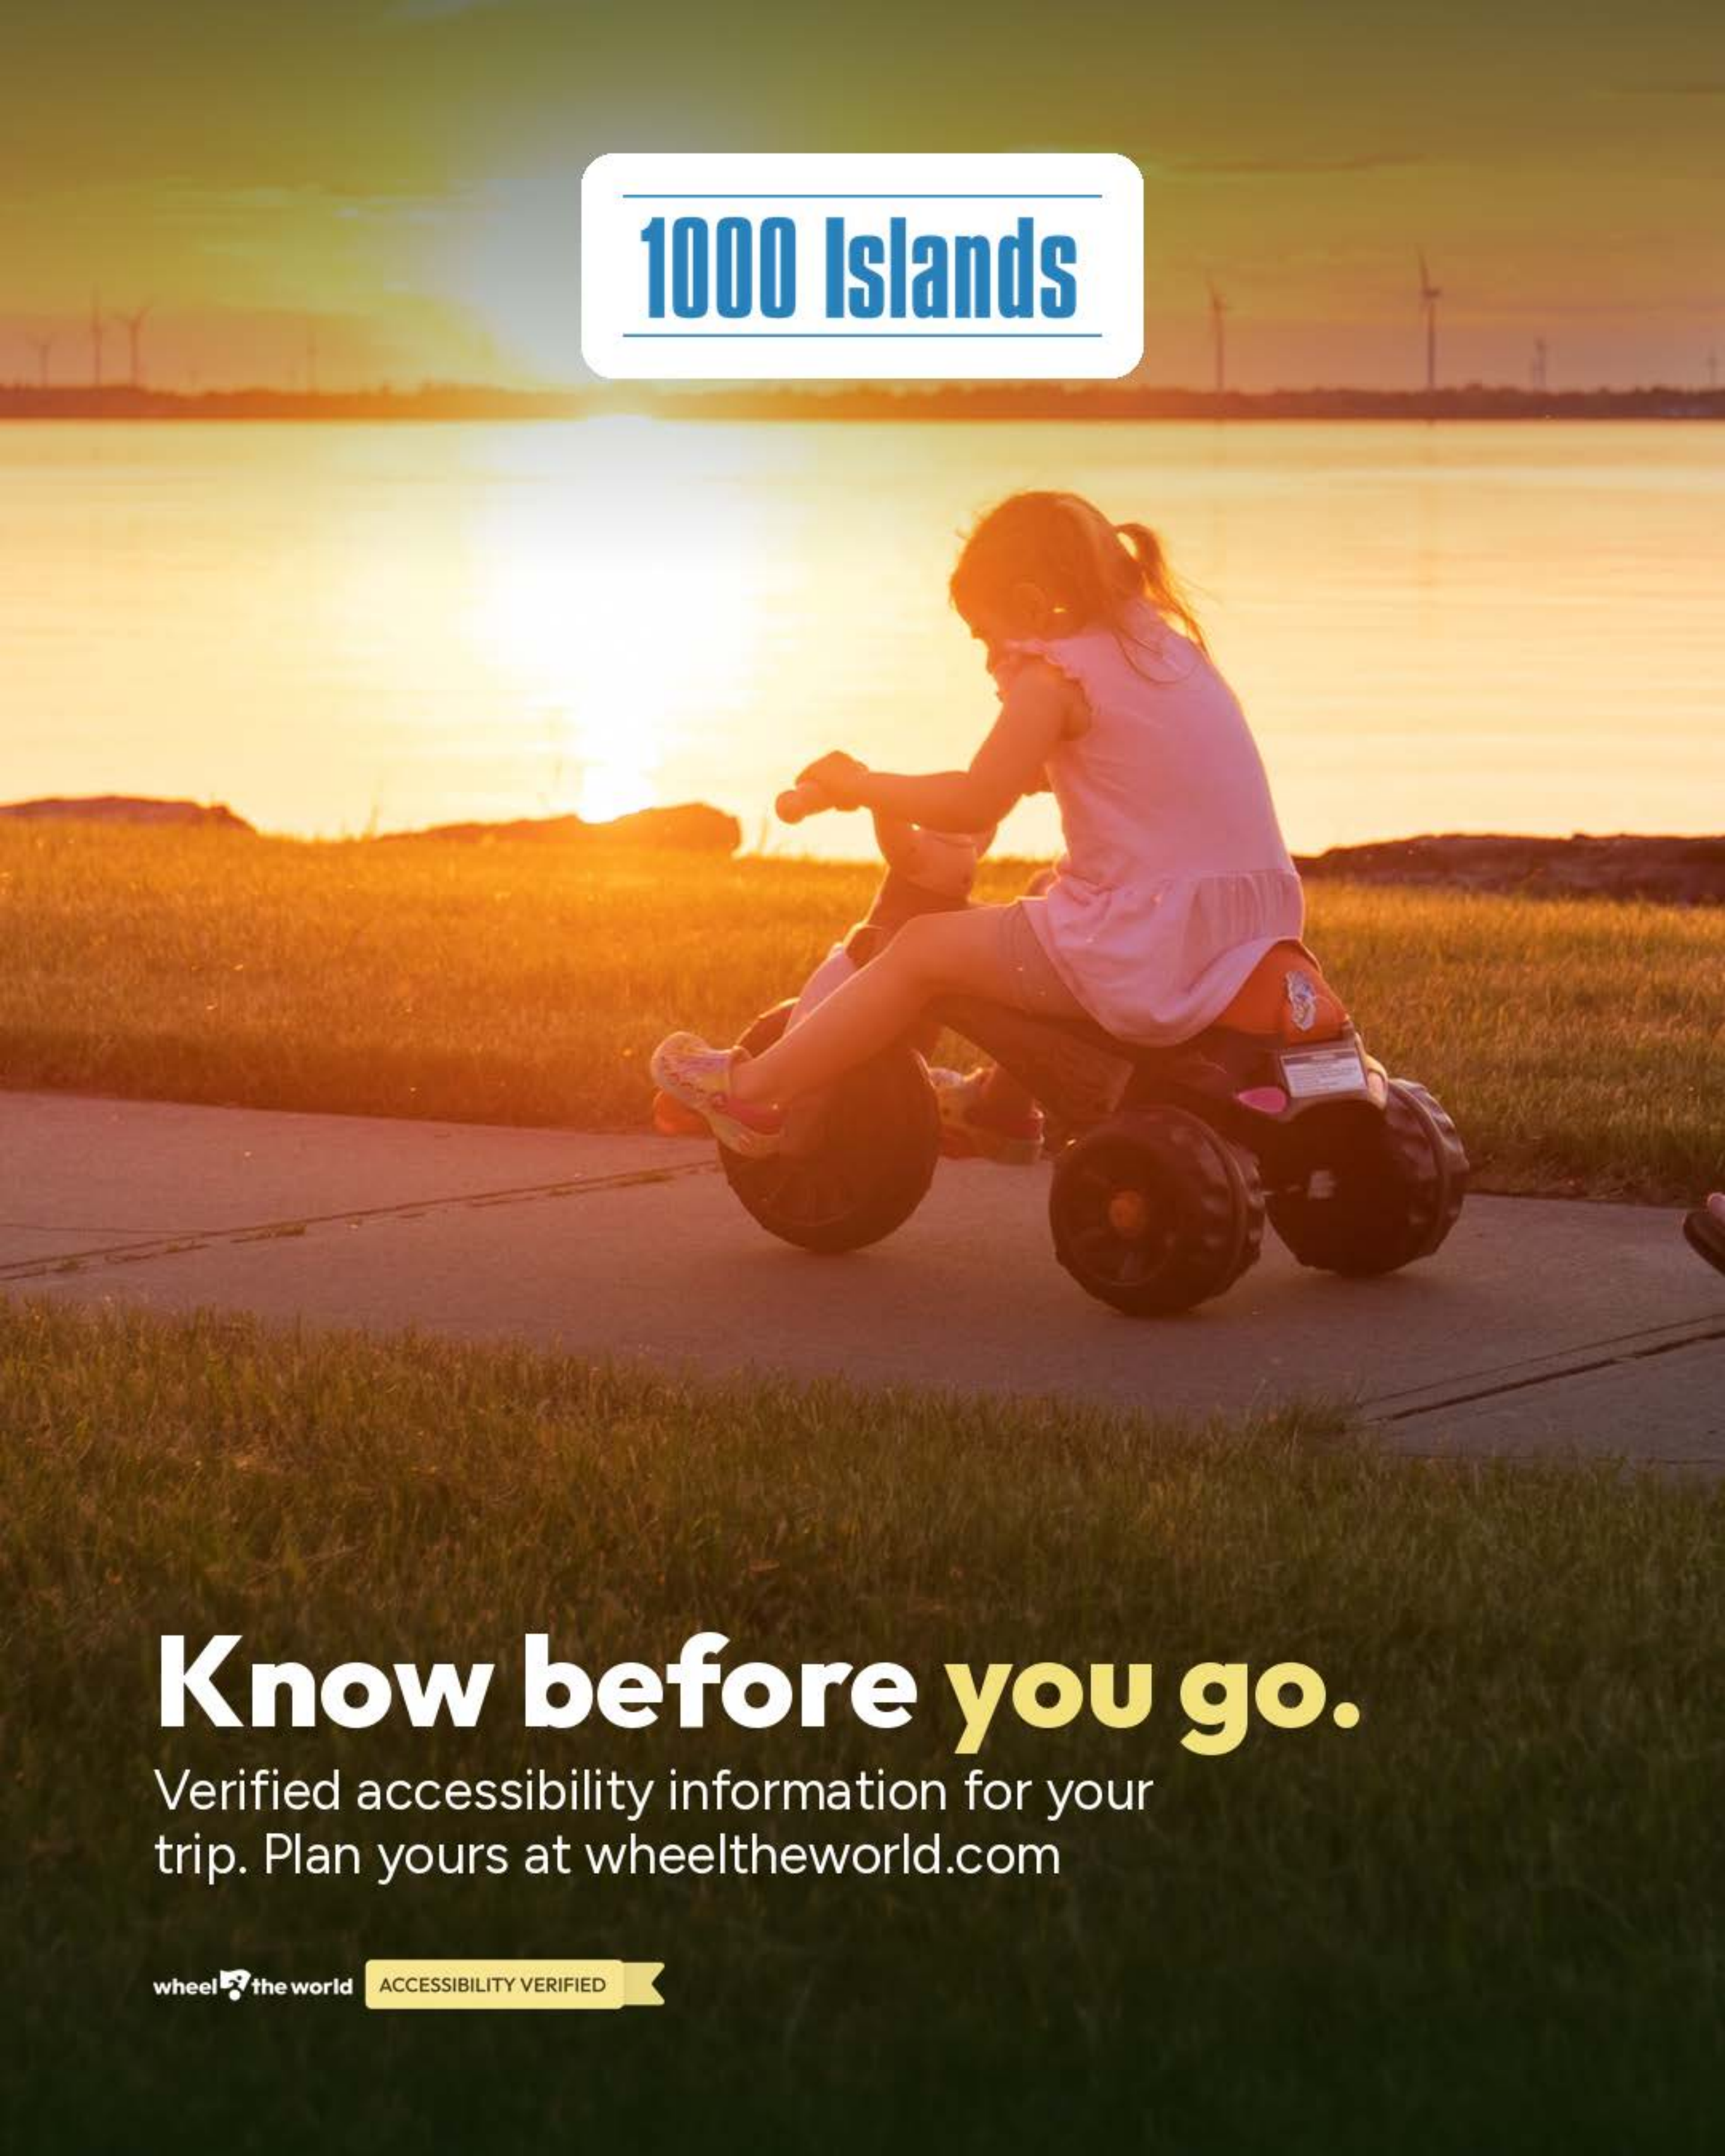

Paved trails, river views.

The Minna Anthony Common Nature Center keeps paved trails along the water, with room to turn and places to stop.

A quieter lakefront.

Trade the bay for Sackets Harbor: a paved waterfront to roll along and the Harbor House Inn a block from it.

A young girl with pigtails, wearing a light-colored dress, is riding a black tricycle on a paved path. The scene is set at sunset, with a bright orange sun low on the horizon over a body of water. In the background, several wind turbines are visible against the sky. The overall atmosphere is warm and serene.
